LIVE & SELF-PACED on-line training, taught by industry leaders delivering high calibre in-depth nutrition education

APPLIED HOLISTIC NUTRITION DIPLOMA PROGRAM

The Applied Holistic Nutrition Diploma program provides a Diploma upon graduation and a Certified Nutritional Practitioner (CNP) certification. There are 564.5 ON-LINE – LIVE Lecture hours and a mandatory 100-hour Co-op placement totaling 664.5 program hours, with an additional 1500 hours of independent study including case studies and course work, and readings. The full-time program lasting approximately one year and part-time program lasting approx. two years. Language of Instruction is English – Strictly on-line delivery.

Program Details

Institute of Holistic Nutrition On-Line Program includes LIVE lectures (except otherwise indicated), cooking classes, and our exclusive Co-operative placement program. Registration is open year-round; after registration, students may begin the next available course (as long as no prerequisite is required). Continuous students can complete the program in one year (full-time) or 2 years (part-time), but all students have up to 5 years to complete the Diploma in Applied Holistic Nutrition program. Evening part-time studies are completed via corresponding Daytime Lecture replayed on the evening schedule selected. Within this time frame, students must adhere to their registration schedule. All course content is delivered online. Should a student miss the LIVE lecture, a replay will be available for a limited time. Digital course notes are provided prior to the start of each course, ensuring the most up-to-date material is available.

Additional Considerations

- The non-refundable registration deposit of CDN $450 is valid up to one year, after which time the registration is null and void.
- Upon program commencement, the deposit, administrative fees, and tuition paid to date is valid up to five years from the program withdrawal date and may be used towards the regular diploma program only.
- If an individual withdraws, or does not pursue enrollment into courses, for over a period of five years, all Nutrition-related courses must be retaken due to the current nature of the course material.
- Minimum Technical Requirements: (Access to a computer and internet connection meeting minimum requirements)
 - Access to a computer with Operating system: Windows 8, 10; Mac iOS6, Apple OSX 10.4 with at least 1GB Memory and 1GB Storage Space
 - Adobe Reader, Microsoft Office, Webcam, Microphone, High-Speed internet connection
 - Internet Browser: Google Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer, Edge, Safari 6
- An individual has up to five years to complete the program from the initial start date.
- I, hereby release Institute of Holistic Nutrition On-Line Inc., and all affiliates, from any claims of damage or liability arising from any incident, accident, injury that may occur from the participation during any program at any location the said participation in the program is held or occurring.
- I, hereby agree that all program courses, course material, lectures, course notes, and program intellectual property is the exclusive property of Institute of Holistic Nutrition On-line Inc., and/or its affiliates and is subject to copyright protection and laws; and that the unauthorized distribution or sharing of is strictly prohibited and is grounds for immediate expulsion from the program without refund.

Refund Policy: A portion of the tuition fees only may be refunded if written notice of withdrawal from the program or individual course before the applicable deadline. Failure to attend lectures or not submitting coursework does not constitute an automatic withdrawal.

Refund Conditions:

Payment Option A & B: 100% refund up to one week after the commencement of Lectures, minus the non-refundable deposit of $ 450, digital course notes; A 50% refund up to two weeks after the commencement of Lectures, minus the non-refundable deposit of $ 450, digital course notes, and book purchases; No tuition refunds beyond these dates.

Refunds may require up to four weeks to process.

Payment Option C: 100% refund up to one week after the commencement of course or by the 30% drop by point of the individual course start date, minus the non-refundable deposit of $450, digital course notes; No tuition refunds beyond these dates.

Refunds may require up to four weeks to process.

- Official Exemptions

Applicants with credits from an accredited post-secondary educational institute may be exempt from certain health science courses only, provided that these credits meet IHN-On-Line's standards. Exemptions may be provided at the IHN-ON-LINE's discretion:

- Human Anatomy and Physiology (HAP01)
- Organic Chemistry (BC001)
- Biochemistry (BM002)

Students who seek advanced standing must apply to an IHN Program Advisor with official transcripts from a recognized post-secondary school a minimum of 2 weeks prior to the commencement of the program or individual course to receive exemption consideration. To receive a course exemption, two full semesters must be completed within the relevant program of study within the past ten years. An average of 70% or above in the related course is required. If advanced standing is granted prior to registration, a tuition deduction of the course exemption amount will be applied. Official transcripts submitted after the commencement of the program will receive consideration for course exemption but will receive no tuition credit.

- Graduation Eligibility Policy – To qualify for the annual April graduation, please refer to the following assigned deadline of Feb 15 to complete the following; required course work completion, including holistic food preparation and field trips (herb walk and farm trip) and the required Agreement/Evaluation Form completion totaling 100 Co-op hours submitted to your IHN Co-op advisor.
- Attendance Policy: A minimum 75% attendance in all courses is mandatory with the exception of PSD01, NR006, FSN013, AMB02 and CD011 (maximum of one day absence) and HFP04 (no allowable absence). Failure will result, regardless of grade, if the minimum attendance standard is not met. Students on probation are required to attend 90% of all classes. There is a zero-tolerance policy on absenteeism for placement practicum hours. Tardiness is disruptive to everyone and will not be tolerated. Students arriving late more than three times, in more than one course will be given a disciplinary letter of warning. Students who miss 30 minutes or more of class time in one day will be documented as a half class missed. Two missed half classes will total one complete session unattended.
- Tuition Fees Policy: Students are responsible for paying their tuition on time as per their contract. Missed or late payments are subject to 2.5% per week interest. Updates to credit card information are the responsibility of the student. All tuition and fees are due in Canadian currency.
- Academic Dismissal Policy: (Any dismissal/expulsion from the program results in no refund to the student) A student will be dismissed from the program after failing five different courses or the same course four times from the commencement of the program. Four consecutive semesters on Academic Probation are grounds for dismissal. Gross misconduct, as outlined in IHN-On-Line's Code of Conduct, will result in immediate dismissal without warning. Copyright, unauthorized distribution of program materials is grounds for immediate dismissal from the program without refund.
- Academic Probation Policy: Academic Probation is a status established in order to monitor a student's academic progress and assure professional competency upon graduation. A student will be placed on Academic Probation for failing three different courses, the same course twice, and/or arriving late more than three times in any two courses from the commencement of the program. Probation will result if a student fails to comply with the expectations outlined in IHN-On-Line's Code of Conduct. Academic Probation may be lifted after six months of active study.
- Academic Suspension Policy: Academic Suspension will result when a student fails four different courses or the same course three times from the commencement of the program. Failure to comply with IHN-On-Line's Code of Conduct may result in Academic Suspension. A student on Academic Suspension may return to their studies in six months' time on terms of Academic Probation for six months.

- Sexual Violence & Harassment Policy: IHN-On-Line is committed to providing its students with an environment free from sexual violence and treating anyone who reports incidents of sexual violence with dignity and respect. This Sexual Violence Policy defines sexual violence and outlines IHN-On-Line's policies and procedures for training staff and students, and reporting and responding to complaints of sexual violence made by or involving its students.
 - Any person(s) accused of engaging in sexual violence will be referred to as the "Respondent(s)" and the person(s) making the allegation as the "Complainant(s)". If this policy conflicts with the any other of IHN-On-Line's policy, the Sexual Violence Policy prevails.
 - Definition of Sexual Violence: Sexual violence means any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's consent, and includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism, sexual exploitation and the distribution of a sexually explicit photograph or video of a person to one or more persons other than the person in the photograph or video without the consent of the person in the photograph or video and with the intent to distress the person in the photograph and video.

*The complete IHN-On-Line Sexual Harassment Policy will be provided upon acceptance to the program.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is essential to the pursuit of learning and scholarship. The Institute Of Holistic Nutrition Online, (IHNOL), treats cases of cheating and plagiarism very seriously. IHNOL's Student Code of Conduct outlines the behaviors that constitute academic dishonesty and the processes for addressing academic offences.

Potential offences include, but are not limited to:

- Using someone else's ideas or words without appropriate acknowledgement.
- Submitting your own work in more than one course without the permission of the instructor.
- Making up sources or facts.
- Obtaining or providing unauthorized assistance on any assignment.
- Using or possessing unauthorized aids including any and all AI tools, platforms or features.
- Looking at someone else's answers during an exam or test.
- Misrepresenting your identity.
- Falsifying institutional documents or grades.
- Falsifying or altering any documentation required by IHNOL.
- Tape-recording, photograph, video-record or otherwise reproduce lecture presentations, course notes or other similar materials provided by IHNOL or instructors.

Sharing IHNOL's intellectual property is prohibited, (not permitted), and covered by the Canadian Copyright Act:

- Posting test, essay, or exam questions to message boards or social media.
- Creating, accessing, and sharing assessment questions and answers in virtual "course groups."
- Any and all reproduction is an infringement of copyright and is prohibited

Plagiarism:

It shall be an offence for a student knowingly:

- to forge or in any other way alter or falsify any document or evidence required by IHNOL, or
- to utter, circulate or make use of any such forged, altered or falsified document, whether the record be in print or electronic form;
- to use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work
- to personate another person, or to have another person personate, at any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work
- to represent as one's own any idea or expression of an idea or work of another in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work, i.e. to commit plagiarism
- to submit, without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course or program of study at IHNOL or elsewhere
- to submit any academic work containing a purported statement of fact or reference to a source that has been concocted.

All suspected cases of academic dishonesty will be investigated, and action taken following IHNOL procedures.
